Before the final plague...

- God reminds us of His PROVISION for His PEOPLE
(w 1-3)

- God foretells of His RIGHTEOUS RETRIBUTION
(w 4-8)

- God reminds us of His SOVEREIGN PURPOSE
(w 9-10)

FURTHER UP, FURTHER IN

1. What stands out to you as the most interesting/important details from the callback Exodus 11:1-3 to Exodus 3:21-22?
2. In what ways does the Hebrew people plundering the Egyptians provide for them? What can we learn about God from the Hebrew people being given favor with the Egyptians? Matthew 6:25-34
3. Reflecting on the plagues overall, what can we learn about God's character? Isaiah 48:11, Romans 1:21-23, Romans 5:12, Psalm 136: 1-3, 10-16, Exodus 2:23-24
4. How does understanding the relative imminence of our death affect how you view the urgency with which we live? Serve? Evangelize? Psalm 90:12, James 4:14
5. Does God have the right to execute judgment on the Egyptians, even to the point of causing the death of their firstborns?
6. God desires for His glory to be made known throughout the Earth. This was true in Egypt during the Exodus, and it is true today. What are some things that we may create idols out of and give glory to instead of God?
