FURTHER UP, FURTHER IN

1. What role does ignorance play when it comes to the sins of the people that put Jesus to death? What about in our sin today?
Acts 3:17-19, 17:30-31; Numbers 35:9-21; John 8:58, 19:19-22; Luke 23:6-8, 34a
2. Read verses 18, 21, and 24. Discuss the relationship between God's sovereignty and man's will as it pertains to God fulfilling His plan of salvation and fulfilling the promises of the prophets.
Acts 2:23, 4:27-28; Genesis 50:20; Isaiah 10:5-6, 12; Daniel 4:34-35
3. Read verse 19. Why are we to repent? Discuss the listed benefits of repentance in verses 19-20. Why is repentance difficult?
4. Peter's Gospel presentation seems to be focused primarily on Jesus – who He is and what He has done. Do you feel that our modern gospel presentations are consistent with that model? Why or why not?
5. What sins has Jesus blotted out in your life? Consider and/or share your testimony with your home group. Consider this in the context of giving of what we have been given from Brian's sermon on 9/27.
6. Does Jesus' fulfillment of the suffering servant (Isaiah 53), the prophet to succeed Moses (Deuteronomy 18:15-22), the king to succeed David (2 Samuel 7:12-13), or the seed of Abraham (Genesis 12:3, 22:18) stand out the most. Which fulfillment impacts your view of Jesus the most?
7. How can you take this knowledge of the Master's Plan for the salvation of His people and turn the world upside down this week?
Acts 17:30-31

"I have come home at last! This is my real country! I belong here. This is the land I have been looking for all my life, though I never knew it till now... Come further up, come further in!" — C.S. Lewis, The Last Battle
